Philip Sandiford, Editor

Owen Barber

Very sadly we need to give you the news that Owen died in hospital on Thursday morning after an unexpected admission and a few days on the intensive care unit.

Our hearts go out to Janice, Stuart and Maura and to Margaret.
Please hold all the family in your prayers.

Owen has been part of our church community and the scouting movement since birth. He was much appreciated for his gentle, caring personality and willingness to help out - particularly in practical tasks. We too share in feeling his loss.

Best wishes
Rosemary

Visits to any of the church buildings except for services, should only be made in very exceptional circumstances, and your details should be entered on the track and trace record on the noticeboard in the vestry.

If you have any symptoms of Covid-19, please do not come to church

Bring a mask: face coverings became mandatory in communal indoor spaces on 8 August.

There are some circumstances where people are not expected to wear face coverings.

Please be respectful, noting that some people are less well able to wear face coverings, and that the reasons for this may not be visible to others.

The church will be well-ventilated with doors and windows open, so please come prepared if you feel the cold. Please remember to allow more time to get into the service as entrance will be staggered to allow for social distancing.
